

FEATURING A DIVERSE MIX OF MORNING AND AFTERNOON TALKS

ALONG WITH COFFEE-AND-PASTRY REGISTRATION SOCIAL (9-9:30) AND LUNCH (11:30-12:30)

SERIES TO INCLUDE WOMEN IN THE AIR, FIRES OF FORTY-SEVEN, 3 DECADES OF SONG

BRAD COUPE & GEORGE BRUN, members of The Wood Island Lighthouse board, and docents there, strive to preserve the history and to secure the future of this historic landmark.

STEVE SPOFFARD, a trustee of the Brick Store Museum, has researched widely the wildfires of 1947, research including interviews with Joyce Butler, author of "Wildfires Loose." Slides and audience participation will illustrate Steve's talk.

JAMES MAYALL, will describe to us a little known industry indigenous to Franco-America: Snowshoes—their development by the Indians, their contribution to travel and commerce, their evolution into sport. He invites attendees to bring mementos and stories to share.

MICHAEL CHASE

COL. JEN FULLMER

MONICA GRABIN

MICHAEL CHASE, founder of "The Kindness Center" who speaks passionately on kindness, resilience and positive behavior, will deliver a message of hope. A best-selling author and inspirational speaker, Michael is unaligned with any particular belief system—just the universal language of kindness.

COL. JEN FULLMER, head of "Boots to Roots" and a 24-year veteran of the U.S. Air Force, works to assist active duty military members to transition to Maine. Jen is a command pilot with more than 2,500 hours on the B-1 bomber including 90 combat missions in Afghanistan and Iraq.

MONICA GRABIN, musician and historian, specializes in how American history is reflected in song. She plays guitar, banjo, and autoharp and various percussion instruments. Her focus in this YCSC program will be on music of the 50's and 60's, and a few from "the greatest decade of American songwriting—the 40's."
